

IVANA BAŠIĆ

Ivana Bašić (b. 1986, Belgrade) addresses the vulnerability and transformation of the body and human matter in her work. By using different materials in the work (such as wax, glass, steel, alabaster, oil paint) and combining these with technique and immaterial matters (such as breath, pressure and rigidity), the sculptures acquire a posthuman quality. The colours she chooses refer strongly to the human body. Pink, white and natural combinations are reminiscent of blood, bone and flesh.

Bašić received her bachelor's degree from Belgrade University and her master's degree from the Tisch School of the Arts at NYU. Recent solo exhibitions of the artist's work have taken place at Albion Jeune (2025); MO.CO. Montpellier Contemporain (2025); François Ghebaly, New York (2022); Museum of Art November Gallery, Belgrade (2018); Marlborough Contemporary, New York (2017); and Annka Kultys Gallery, London (2016). The artist participated in group exhibitions held at Schinkel Pavillon, Berlin (2023); Lafayette Anticipations, Paris (2023); Francesca Minini Gallery, Milan (2022); Anonymous Gallery, New York (2022); Someday Gallery, New York (2022); Galerie du Monde, Hong Kong (2022); National Gallery Prague (2021); Museum of Art and Design at Miami Dade College (2020); Lyles & King, New York (2020); Matthew Brown, Los Angeles (2020); Athens Biennial (2018); Belgrade Biennial (2018); and Hessel Museum of Art, Annendale- On-Hudson (2017), among others. Her work is in the permanent collection of The Whitney Museum, New York. She has participated in the Fourteenth Taipei Biennial, Whispers on the Horizon in 2025.
